

Overview

Brake vacuum tubes are used to transmit negative pressure generated by the intake manifold or vacuum pump to the brake booster.

The tubes play a critical role in doubling the force of the brake pedal.

Features

1. More lightweight than rubber hose
2. Modularization is possible with quick connectors, joints, and other connecting components

Primary Applications

Vacuum tubes for brake assist systems

